

CWA District 7 Human Rights Conference 2024 Scholarship Application

Eligible Candidate must be

- A CWA member in good standing
- Actively engaged in the CWA Local Union
- Participating in the CWA Political Action Fund at $10.00 per month
- Expected to attend monthly Human Rights calls hosted by the District 7 Human Rights Committee post-conference
- Recommended by your Local President

Eligible Expenses

- Lost time wages for up to 3 days
- Conference registration
- Meals with receipts up to the daily per diem rate (Houston $69.00)
- Transportation to the hotel with receipts (taxi, uber, etc.)
- Airfare to Houston

Reimbursement Process

CWA District 7 will process and pay the registration fee. Airfare can be paid by District 7 or by your Local and processed for reimbursement.

The hotel can be paid by CWA District 7 in person at the conference, or the attendee can pay and get reimbursed by the Local union.

Any other expenses will be paid by the Local Union and processed as reimbursement by CWA District 7 following the current reimbursement guidelines.

Applicant Information:

Name: _____ Local: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

City: _____ State: _____

Employer: _____ Job Title: _____

Role within Union: _____

Circle one:

Are you a dues-paying member in good standing? Yes No

Are you participating in the CWA PAF at $10.00 per month or more? Yes No

Have you attended any of the District 7 monthly Human Rights calls? Yes No

*not required

Have you attended any of the Human Rights training in District 7 either in person or on Zoom?

*not required

Yes No

How do you plan on using the information learned at this conference in expanding your Local's participation in Human Rights? (Example, report at membership, start a committee, share with an existing Local Human Rights Committee)

When complete please send the application to Paul Castaneda at pcastaneda@cwa-union.org